

Hello, I would like to comment on your proposal of changing the telemarketing law for Indiana. I think this no call list was one of the best things that happened to me this year. After working 12 hrs. a day my husband & I are able to enjoy our time at home much more without the 10 + calls an evening selling everything. Please do not let them start again!! Thank You Kelly S. Burris
Indiana